BUCKNELL ATHLETICS HALL OF FAMERS

William D. Dearstyne '62 - Inducted in 1982: Twice a co-captain of the Bison swimming team, Dearstyne won Middle Atlantic Conference 100 and 200-yard backstroke championships for three straight years. Dearstyne was the Eastern 100-yard backstroke champion in 1960. He led the Bison to their first-ever MAC championship in 1960. Dearstyne was the first Bucknell swimmer to compete at the NCAA Championship. A member of the Bucknell Board of Trustees and a tremendous friend to Bison Athletics, Dearstyne helped establish the Robert A. Latour Swimming & Diving Endowment in 2002.

William C. Dorr '62 - Inducted in 1995: A three-year swimming letterman and twice co-captain of the Bison team, Bill Dorr helped lead Bucknell in 1960 to the first of its 18 conference swimming championships. Winner of the 220 and 440-yard freestyle events and anchor on the 400-yard medley relay team that clinched the Middle Atlantic Conference Championship for the Bison, Dorr also won one other conference title, placed sixth in the 100 free at the 1962 Eastern Collegiate Championships, and at the time of his graduation held or shared five school records.

William L. Drake '72 - Inducted in 1996: A four-year letterman in swimming, Bill Drake co-captained the 1974-75 team and set school and conference records in the 200-yard backstroke. Winner of the 200 back at the Middle Atlantic and East Coast Conference meets for three straight years, he also won the event at the East-West meet in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., in 1974. Drake won four individual events and was on seven winning relays at conference championship meets during his career, while seven of the victories were in record times. He also competed on three relay teams in the NCAA meet in 1975.

Jeremy Gross '93 - Inducted in 2008: One of the top sprinters in program history, Jay Gross won eight individual Patriot League titles during an outstanding four-year career. He won three Patriot League gold medals in both the 50-yard freestyle and the 100-yard butterfly, and he captured two titles in the 100 free. In addition, he was a member of six Patriot League champion relay teams as well as one East Coast Conference championship relay unit as a freshman. Gross was honored as the Patriot League Co-Swimmer of the Meet in both 1992 and 1993, and he went on to win ECAC championships in the 100 fly and 100 free in 1992, and in the 50 and 100 free in 1993. He set meet records in both events as a senior.

James B. Harvey '88 - Inducted in 1999: One of the most decorated swimmers in Bucknell history, Jim Harvey graduated as the owner of eight individual school records. During his career Harvey dominated the East Coast Conference, winning 11 of a possible 12 individual races. He was named the Outstanding Swimmer of the Meet in each of his four years. Harvey won ECC Championship titles in seven different events, twice qualifying for the NCAA Championships, where he was honorable mention in the 50-meter freestyle in 1988. He was the Eastern champion in the 100 free in 1987 and in the 100 butterfly in 1988.

Jeff Hilk '86 - Inducted in 2010: Jeff Hilk was a standout for both the Bucknell water polo and swimming and diving teams in the mid-1980s. As a four-year swimming letterman, Hilk graduated with school records in the 200-yard freestyle and 400 and 800 freestyle relays. The Cincinnati, Ohio, native was a top-eight finisher in five freestyle events at East Coast Conference Championships and was on two gold-medal relays in 1985. Hilk won the Scott Schulte Award as the water polo team's MVP in 1985 and was also the co-recipient of the Christy Mathewson Award as the top senior athlete in his class. During the water polo circuit he posted 334 goals and 460 points in his career, totals that still rank second only to fellow Hall of Famer and All-American Scott Schulte '81 on Bucknell's career charts.

Robert A. Latour - Inducted in 1985: Bucknell's swimming coach from the inception of the program in 1956 until 1968 and director of athletics from 1968 to 1978, Bob Latour is one of the all-time greats in Bison annals. He led his swimming teams to six Middle Atlantic Conference championships (1960, 1963-65, 1967-68) and the 1964 NCAA College Division title. Sixteen of his swimmers were selected to the College Division All-America Team, and his dual meet record was 83-31. For the next 10 years, Latour served as Bucknell's athletic director as the university gained national stature with increased men's and women's athletic programs. Under his watch Bison teams won more conference championships than any other school, four sports were added to the intercollegiate program, and a $4 million sports/recreation center was constructed. From 1978 until his retirement in 1990, he served as Bucknell's senior associate athletic director and NCAA Faculty Representative. Latour was also freshman football coach from 1956-65 and was chairman of the NCAA Division II Football Committee. He also served on several important administrative committees for the NCAA. Latour was president of the Middle Atlantic Conference and East Coast Conference plus served as a member of the executive committee of the Eastern College Basketball Association.

Geoffrey B. Miller '76 - Inducted in 1998: A four-year swimming letterman, co-captain of the 1975-76 team and a member of Bucknell teams that won four consecutive Middle Atlantic Conference and East Coast Conference championships, the late Geoff Miller was one of the most dominant swimmers of perhaps the greatest swimming era in school history. During his career he won seven individual conference titles and was on 10 relay teams that took conference gold medals. He set three league individual records and competed at the NCAA Swimming Championships twice.

Peter R. O'Keeffe '72 - Inducted in 1984: Peter O'Keeffe co-captained the 1971-72 Bucknell swimming team and is one of only two University Division All-Americans in program history. Winner of the 200-yard freestyle at the Middle Atlantic Conference Championships for three straight years, O'Keeffe also won three other MAC freestyle titles, held or shared eight school records, and starred on teams that won two MAC team titles. In addition to earning All-America honors in the 100-yard backstroke at the NCAA Championships in 1971, he placed in the top nine in the backstroke races at the Eastern Championships five times.

Gregory W. Olson '70 - Inducted in 1987: Greg Olson was, at the time of his graduation, the highest scorer in Bucknell swimming history, and he held school records in the 500, 1000 and 1650-yard freestyle events and in the 400 free relay. As a senior, Olson won Middle Atlantic Conference championships in the 200 butterfly and 500 and 1650 freestyle and placed in both the 200 fly and 500 free at the Eastern Championships. Co-captain of the 1969-70 team, he swam on teams that had a combined 26-10 record and won two MAC titles.

Robert N. Richards '74 - Inducted in 1985: One of the finest divers in Bucknell history, Bob Richards won the Middle Atlantic Conference one- and three-meter championships in 1973 and 1974. He co-captained the swimming and diving team as a senior and set a school dual meet scoring record. He was a member of teams that won 36 of 43 dual meets and four straight conference titles. Richards scored in the Eastern Championships, was named to the Dean's List five times at Bucknell, and received the ECAC Medallion for athletic and scholastic excellence.

Richard W. Russell - Inducted in 1997: The foundation of the Bucknell aquatics program for more than a quarter-century, Dick Russell coached the men's swimming and diving team from 1968-94 and created the water polo program at Bucknell, coaching the team from its inception as a varsity sport in 1977 until 1986. Russell's swim teams compiled a dual-meet record of 154-121 and won 11 conference championships, while his water polo teams tallied an overall record of 223-68-4, making him the first coach in Bucknell history to record 100 or more victories in two sports. Russell passed away in April 2008.

Roger J. Schwanhauser '75 - Inducted in 2002: Roger Schwanhauser was one of the leaders of a terrific Bison swimming team that captured four straight Middle Atlantic Conference and East Coast Conference team championships. In addition to winning three individual conference titles, Schwanhauser earned gold medals on 10 different relays. He graduated with Bucknell records in the 100 backstroke and 200 IM. His son, Stephen '03, also swam for the Bison and set school records in the 100 and 200 breaststroke. They are the only father-son combination in school history in any sport to have held school records.

James P. Smigie '65 - Inducted in 1980: Jim Smigie won the 100 and 200-yard butterfly races to pace Bucknell to the 1964 NCAA College Division Championship. A co-captain of the 1964-65 Bison team and a member of teams that had a combined 28-4 record and won three straight Middle Atlantic Conference Championships, Smigie also won NCAA gold medals in the 400-yard medley relay in 1964 and the 200 fly in 1965 when Bucknell finished third in the team competition. The first MAC swimmer to win seven individual conference gold medals in his career, Smigie was undefeated in 34 dual meets in the 200 fly.

Edmund Jared Thimme, Jr. '66 - Inducted in 1990: Winner of five individual Middle Atlantic Conference swimming championships, Jerry Thimme also won the 200 and 1650-yard freestyles at the 1964 NCAA College Division Championships to help lead Bucknell to the team title. He was an All-American in four events in 1964 and two more the following year. Thimme was a part of MAC championship teams in 1964 and 1965. In 1964 he won MAC gold medals in the 200 free, 500 free and 400 free relay, and a year later he repeated in all three events. He also won the MAC title in the 200 free as a senior in 1966.

---

Stephen P. Winings '74 - Inducted in 2008: Steve Winings was named an All-American after finishing eighth in the 50-yard free-style at the 1971 NCAA Championships, the highest finish ever by a Bucknell swimmer. He captured the Middle Atlantic Conference title in the 50 free every year from 1971-74, making him the first swimmer in conference history to win an event four years in a row. He also won the 100 breaststroke in 1971 and 1973 and captured seven more MAC titles in relays, including four in the 400 free relay. Winings was twice a silver medalist in the 50 free at the Eastern Championships. He co-captained the 1973-74 team to the only undefeated season in Bucknell history.
