BUCKNELL ATHLETICS HALL OF FAMERS

B. Kathryn Frazier '82 - Inducted in 1987: The first woman swimmer to be enshrined, Kathy Frazier was a three-year co-captain. She earned 19 All-America designations, three of them with top-5 finishes at the AIAW Division II Championships her senior year. A specialist in the freestyle and butterfly events, Frazier had a gaudy 84-5 career record in dual meet individual events and held eight school records upon graduation. The winner of the Bison Club Award and the Christy Mathewson Award as the outstanding athlete in her senior class, Frazier's top placings in national championships included a second and three thirds.

Margaret Grunow Conze '93 - Inducted in 2004: One of the finest female swimmers in Bucknell history, Conze won a school-record 88 individual races and never lost a regular-season 50 or 100-yard freestyle event. In 12 career individual league championship races, she captured 11 gold medals and one bronze medal. During her junior and senior campaigns she was a perfect 49-0, including six Patriot League individual titles and an Eastern Seaboard championship. Conze became the first female swimmer in school history to compete at the U.S. Olympic Trials.

Lynn Kachmarik (Coach) - Lynn Kachmarik was a true coaching pioneer at Bucknell, mentoring both men and women student-athletes in four different sports from 1982-98. Kachmarik was a world-class water polo player when she came to Bucknell in 1982 as a lecturer in physical education as well as head women's swimming and diving coach. She is the longest-tenured and winningest coach in the history of that program, compiling a 120-52-1 dual-meet record in 16 years. She led the Bison to the 1987 East Coast Conference team championship and coached 43 individuals and 17 relays to league titles. In 1994, Kachmarik succeeded the legendary Dick Russell as head coach of the Bucknell men's swimming and diving program, and she led the men to a 31-9 dual-meet record and six individual Patriot League gold medals from 1994-98.

Catherine Karpuk Seward '77 - Inducted in 1993: The first female athlete at Bucknell to receive All-America recognition, Cathy Karpuk Seward earned four varsity letters as a diver on the swimming and diving teams, and she is generally regarded as the finest female diver ever at Bucknell. A team co-captain in 1976-77, she placed fifth in the three-meter dive and sixth in the one-meter event that year at the AIAW Small College National Championships to earn the All-America honors. Karpuk Seward had 47 first-place finishes in her four-year dual-meet career.

Kathleen A. Lynch '87 - Inducted in 1998: A four-year swimming letterwinner and twice co-captain of the team, Kathy Lynch won eight East Coast Conference individual championships and earned All-East honors in the 200-yard backstroke. A placewinner in backstroke events at the Eastern Championships for four consecutive years, Lynch held 10 school individual and relay records at graduation. She was highly instrumental in Bucknell winning its first women's conference swimming championship in 1987, and she was twice the ECC Scholar-Athlete in women's swimming.

Susan D. Mestier Brauner '74 - Inducted in 1997: A pioneer in the Bucknell aquatics program, Sue Mestier Brauner served as team captain of Bucknell's first varsity women's swimming team and qualified for national championship competition. She graduated with school records in the 100, 200 and 400-yard freestyle events, and the 100-yard butterfly. She recorded two top-10 finishes at the 1974 National Women's Swimming Championships. Led by Mestier Brauner, Bucknell's first-ever varsity team finished fifth at the Eastern Championships and placed 18th of 75 teams at the national championship meet.

Jennifer A. Myers-Keating '98 - Inducted in 2008: One of Bucknell's most decorated woman swimmers, Jennifer Myers-Keating became the first female in Patriot League history to win the same event at the league championship meet four straight years. She won 35 of 36 career races in the 200 back and never lost a race at home in four years. A four-time All-Patriot Leaguer, Myers-Keating won the three events at the 1995 Patriot League Championships and was named Co-Swimmer of the Meet. In addition to her four Patriot League gold medals in the 200 back, she also won three more in the 100 back and graduated with 10 PL titles. Her eight individual gold medals were a league record at the time.
